

Kamloops/Thompson Teacher-Librarian Association

2017 SUMMER INSTITUTE

Monday, August 28th

Kamloops, BC

Transformational Storytelling

Join us Sunday evening for local wine tasting and appetizers at the Sandman Signature Hotel.

Monday, explore storytelling strategies, ethnobotany and Secwepemc culture and history at the site of the Kamloops Residential School.

Register with the BCTLA (bctla.ca)

The morning sessions may not be suited to those with mobility issues.

We gratefully acknowledge the financial support of the BCTF.

Sunday, August 27th, Sandman Signature Hotel 4-6PM

225 Lorne St, Kamloops

The Sandman Signature Hotel is conveniently located downtown. Stroll shops on Victoria St., swim in the Thompson River, play tennis or pickleball at Riverside Courts or simply laze by the hotel pool. Between 4PM-6PM join us for local wine-tasting and appetizers at the Sandman Signature Hotel, overlooking scenic Riverside Park. Finish the evening by enjoying our city sponsored Music in the Park at Riverside.

Monday, August 28th, Assembly Hall Residential School 8:30-12:15

345 Chief Alex Thomas Way, Kamloops

Keynote: Poet, Teacher, Storyteller Garry Gottfriedson 9:00

Begin your day immersed in storytelling and poetry with renowned local author, Garry Gottfriedson.

Pow-wow Grounds and Pit House Tour 10:15-11:15

After your fruit and bannock snack, take a tour of the Pow-Wow grounds and pit-houses. Learn about the uses of local plants by Secwepemc peoples, the historical significance of pit house villages and how Pow-wows provide a spectacular expression of the Secwepemc people's heritage.

Residential School and Secwepemc Museum Tour 11:15-12:15

Join Cultural Educator, Sabrina Thomas on a tour of the Kamloops Residential School and museum. View museum exhibits and gain insights into the lifestyles and culture of the Secwepemc people.

Afternoon Sessions, Henry Grube Education Centre 12:30-3:30

245 Kitchener Crescent, Kamloops

Welcome 12:30

Lunch, catered by The Painted Pony 12:45

Afternoon Storytelling, 1:30

Learn about storytelling protocols with Aboriginal resource Educator, Roxane Letterlough, who will also share the legend "How the Bear Lost his Tail."

Storytelling Project 1:45-2:30

School District #73 Teacher-Librarian will share their collaborative Innovation Storytelling Project, focusing on Aboriginal stories and using loose parts and realistic scenes to engage learners.

Pine Needle Art 2:30-3:30

Participate in a Secwepemc pine needle art activity with local artisan Wendy Leonard.

Core Competency List, Available to view all day

Check out the School District No. 73 Teacher-Librarian curated list and display of picture books that support the teaching of the BC Curriculum Core Competencies.