Bob Rosen Social Justice Award Information Package and Nomination Form

Purpose

Bob Rosen was a tremendous advocate for social justice, human rights, peace, and the rights of working people worldwide. He worked tirelessly within his union and the broader community in the interest of helping to create a better world. Bob exemplified what it means to be a social justice activist, never shying away from controversial issues, using every opportunity to educate and engage, and constantly reaching out in solidarity to others.

Bob served as president of the Surrey Teachers' Association from 1992–93 and served his local and the BCTF in many capacities. Bob passed away peacefully on November 22, 2011.

The Bob Rosen Social Justice Award was established in 2012 to honour the memory of Bob Rosen. The award may be made annually, at the BCTF Annual General Meeting (AGM), to a person who has made a significant, sustained contribution toward social justice leadership within our union.

Criteria for the award

The Bob Rosen Social Justice Award will be awarded at the BCTF AGM to a member or honorary associate member who has made an outstanding and sustained contribution in working for systemic change on issues of social justice, including but not limited to one or more of the following: antiracism, peace and global education, environmental justice, the status of women, antipoverty, and LGBTQ issues.

Nominating procedures

- The award may be made annually at the Annual General Meeting.
- Nominations should consist of the completed application form, as per the criteria above, and up to a maximum of two additional pages of supporting letters or documents.
- Nominations may be submitted by locals, groups of members, or individual members.
- The award will be determined by decision of the Executive Committee at the February Executive Committee meeting.
- No member of the Executive Committee holding office at the time of selection will be eligible to be nominated for the award.

Deadline: January 31, 2018
