BC international student revenue and FTE enrolment, 2001–02 to 2005–06

By Larry Kuehn, EdD
BCTF Research Department

Revenue from international students (also known as non-resident or offshore students) studying in BC schools increased by $10 million in 2005–06, rising to $109 million in the province as a whole. This continues a trend and reflects a doubling of revenue since the 2001–02 school year.

International student enrolment nearly doubled over the same period. It rose from 4,083 full-time equivalent students in 2001–02 to 7,853 full-time equivalents in 2005–06.

While overall revenue increased, sixteen districts had less fee revenue in 2005–06 than the previous year. The Vancouver district had the greatest drop in revenue, with a reduction of $570,000.

The districts with the largest revenue from international students were:

- Coquitlam
- Vancouver
- Surrey
- West Vancouver
- North Vancouver.

The district with the highest international-student-fee revenue relative to enrolment is West Vancouver. Eight districts and the Francophone Education Authority had no revenue from international students.

Four districts increased their revenue by more than $1 million between 2005–06 and the previous year: Surrey, Maple Ridge-Pitt Meadows, West Vancouver and Burnaby.

While the number of international students, and revenue generated, both continued to grow over the last year, this has been at a slower rate than in previous years.

See tables 1 and 2 for district-specific revenue and enrolment data.
