What is PSA?

PSAs, an integral part of the BCTF, are sources of professional assistance and development. PSA members exchange ideas on research, teaching strategies, curriculum development, and other shared interests. The PSA Council advises the BCTF Executive Committee on PSA member concerns, educational policy, and professional development. By joining one or more PSAs, you gain an opportunity to share expertise and obtain information and experience. Every year at PSA annual conferences, thousands of PSA members enhance their skills and renew their dedication.

You can make a contribution simply by joining a PSA. The PSA fee and a BCTF member grant fund the PSA's operations. By giving of yourself as a writer, a reporter, a speaker, an organizer, a chapter leader, a resource person, or an officer, you strengthen your PSA. Each PSA is unique—its strength is determined by its members.

Benefits to members:

PSAs give members:

- educational policy change updates
- networks via local chapters
- specialty publications
- support for exemplary practice
- support for new teachers
- teacher awards
- teaching resources and learning materials.

PSAs host for members:

- annual conferences
- annual general meetings
- local or regional conferences.

PSAs provide a collective voice to:

- help develop BCTF directions
- influence curriculum and assessment policies
- provide advice to the BCTF Executive Committee in order to influence the Ministry of Education.

PSA conferences

The October PSA day is especially for, and organized by, PSAs. PSA conferences are featured on the BCTF's PD Calendar: <https://bctf.ca/PD-days.aspx>.

Many PSAs maintain web pages and email lists and produce publications. More information: bctf.ca/psawebsites.aspx. Join a PSA to share your expertise and obtain information.

You can join online at bctf.ca/psa/join.aspx, or complete and return the form on this brochure.
